Porvorim, 13th June, 2006.

Department of Rural Development & R. D. A.

District Rural Development Agency

Notification

No. 8-65/DRDA-N/06-07/1013

Whereas the Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India, by its D.O. No. Q-21022/4/2003-AI(RD) dated February 23, 2006 advised all the States/Union Territories to conduct BPL-Census 2002, for identifying the households living below the poverty line.

And whereas on 05-5-2003, a Writ Petition (No. 196/2001) was filed by People's Union of Civil Liberties in the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, New Delhi, and interim stay order was passed, due to which BPL Census 2002 was not finalized.

And whereas the Hon'ble Supreme Court, in the above referred Writ Petition passed an order on 14-2-2006 vacating the stay order passed on 05-5-2003 and directed to finalize the BPL list. In the said order, provision has also been made to allow new names to be added and ineligible names deleted from the BPL Census-2002 list on a continuous basis during the period to which the list applies.

And whereas after considering the guidelines issues by the Government of India, a BPL list has been prepared under which 14 cut-off score has been fixed for North Goa District and 18 cut-off score has been fixed for South Goa District in terms of 13 cardinal indicators fixed by the Planning Commission and these lists are displayed by the Village Panchayats on their notice boards for the information of the general public. The said list will also be placed before the Gram Sabha for its approval.

And whereas any person/family if being aggrieved by the said BPL lists are eligible to file their appeals to the respective Mamlatdar/Joint Mamlatdar of the taluka in the capacity as the first appellate authority by filling the said BPL Census form. The first appellate authority shall dispose the appeal after due inquiry within 10 days from the date of the receipt of the appeal and convey the result to the applicants.

And whereas, if the applicant is not satisfied with the decision of the first appellate authority, he can file second appeal by filling the same Census Form to the respective Deputy Collector and Sub Divisional Officer being the second appellate authority. The second appellate authority shall also dispose the said appeal after due inquiry within a period of 10 days from the date of receipt of the appeal. The decision of the second appellate authority shall be final.

And whereas in both the cases if the applicant falls within the prescribed cut-off scores, his/her name shall be added to the BPL list.

Now, therefore, in view of the directives issued by the Government of India, in compliance to orders of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the Government of Goa is pleased to appoint the Mamlatdar/Joint Mamlatdar of the respective taluka as the first Appellate Authority and Deputy Collector/Sub Divisional Magistrate/Sub Divisional Officer of the respective sub-division as the second Appellate Authority.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.

N. B. Narvekar, Joint Secretary (R. D.).
